2024 COMMEMORATION

“FREEDOM CELEBRATED
LEGACY HONORED”

MON. JUNE 17TH 1000-1100

Dr. Opal Lee

“Grandmother of Juneteenth”

An activist born in 1926 who began a symbolic walk to raise awareness of Juneteenth, marking the 1865 emancipation of enslaved African Americans in Texas. Her efforts culminated in Juneteenth becoming a federal holiday on June 17, 2021, honoring African American heritage and freedom.
